DECISION ON ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On December 23, 2014, Patricia M. Abel filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,<sup>2</sup> [the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"]. Petitioner alleged that she suffered Guillan-Barre Syndrome resulting from an influenza vaccine administered on November 2, 2012. On July 23, 2015, a decision was issued awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties' stipulation.

On September 17, 2015, the parties filed a Stipulation of Fact Concerning Attorneys' Fees and Costs. According to the stipulation, the parties agree upon an award of $30,999.20. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner's counsel represents that petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. 42 U.S.C. § 300 aa-15(e). I find the proposed amount to be reasonable.

Accordingly, I award the total of $30,999.20<sup>3</sup> as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel Lynn R. Laufenberg.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.<sup>4</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.

<sup>3</sup> This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y, HHS, 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

<sup>4</sup> Entry of judgment can be expedited by each party's filing of a notice renouncing the right to seek review. See Vaccine Rule 11(a).
